Dear Ms Daniels

I am pleased to submit for consideration the Australian Information and Communications Technology in Education Committee (AICTEC) response to the Attorney General's Discussion Paper Fair Use and Other Copyright Exceptions.

AICTEC's interest in copyright and intellectual property issues reflects the significant and growing use of internet and other ICT-based educational content in the school, VET and university sectors. The increased digital availability of this content introduces significant new legal and economic considerations into the education resource debate.

The AICTEC submission represents a whole-of-education summary position and is the result of extensive liaison and discussion within the education sector. AICTEC also endorses the submission developed by the Schools Resourcing Taskforce, Flexible Learning Advisory Group and the Australian Digital Alliance.

I would welcome an opportunity to expand on the AICTEC submission if necessary.

Yours sincerely

Leslie Loble
