Title	Classification – Fees for applications submitted under the Additional Content Assessor scheme [Amendments to the Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) Regulations 2005.]
Description of issue	The above Regulations were amended to prescribe fees for applications submitted under a new Additional Content Assessor scheme where trained and authorised content assessors are able to make a recommendation to the Classification Board on the appropriate classification and consumer advice for “additional content” released with an already classified or exempt film. In accordance with cost recovery principles, new lower fees were introduced for these applications.
